

Carlisle Infant School

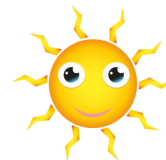

Update

6th September 2024

Dear Parents/Carers,

Dear Parents and Carers,

It's been a delight to see our pupils returning to school in their new Federation uniforms. Their smiles, energy, and enthusiasm as they settle into their new classrooms have been truly heartwarming. The start of a new academic year always brings a sense of excitement and possibility, and this year is no exception.

Zoe Brittain
Federation Headteacher

As we embark on this new term, I'd like to share our focus for the coming weeks. We'll be emphasising the value of Togetherness throughout this half term, fostering a sense of community and collaboration among our pupils.

Additionally, we're placing special emphasis on behaviour expectations and our relentless routine – 'Marvellous Manners'. We're celebrating pupils who use 'please' and 'thank you', those who greet us and respond when greeted, and children who demonstrate good manners, such as holding doors open or tucking in chairs.

These small acts of kindness and respect contribute significantly to creating a positive and nurturing school environment. We appreciate your support in reinforcing these values at home, as we work together to help our pupils develop into considerate and well-mannered individuals.

A more in depth newsletter will be sent out, once our new reception cohort are all in.

Head of School
