Statement of intent

We are proud of all the children at Carlisle Infant School and we value the individual contributions they make.

At Carlisle, we lay solid foundations from which children can grow and flourish. Learning is meaningful, active and creative so that all children leave with a love of learning for life. Through experience, children discover areas of strength, develop confidence and their sense of self-worth.

Staff work in partnership with parents, carers, governors and the local community to develop as well-balanced individuals to achieve their potential. We share the responsibility for preparing children to confidently succeed in a rapidly changing world.

At Carlisle Infant School the grant is allocated to initiatives to ensure pupils reach their full potential, both academically and socially. The school aims to raise the attainment and progress of pupils eligible for the PPG so that their performance is in line with pupils who are not entitled to the PPG (both nationally and within their own school).

At Carlisle Infant School, we strive to ensure all pupils achieve equality of opportunity and we monitor attainment and progress continuously. Our belief and research evidence show that, the quality of teaching and learning is the most important factor in the achievement of all pupils. This remains a consistent focus of the school and is the focus of our staff training and support from the senior leadership team. In addition to this, we are able to provide those pupils eligible for pupil premium with specific support depending on their individual needs.

Challenges

This details the key challenges to achievement that we have identified among our disadvantaged pupils.

Challenge number	Detail of challenge
1	Through observations, an increasing number of disadvantaged children have an identified specific learning difficulty. Early identification of specific learning difficulties through the SENCo and external professional ensures the individual needs are met early and appropriate actions can be taken to support each individual as soon as possible
2	Some children eligible for the Pupil Premium Grant have lower levels of engagement including low self-confidence, affecting how they view themselves as learners
3	PPG children are currently performing less well than their non-PPG peers in the key areas of Writing and Maths
4	Some families lack the resources or own confidence, ability or skills to enable to support their young children's learning effectively
5	Some children have limited access to enrichment activities and experiences, outside of school, which could limit aspirations and future choices

Intended outcomes

Part B: Review of outcomes in the previous academic year

Pupil premium strategy outcomes

This details the impact that our pupil premium activity had on pupils in the 2023 to 2024 academic year.

Intended outcome 1

The intended outcome of ensuring that disadvantaged children achieve at least average levels of Communication and Language skills remains a significant challenge at Carlisle Infant School. With only 55% of EYFS pupils eligible for PPG meeting the early learning goals for listening and attention and speaking, it is evident that continued targeted support is necessary. This shortfall is largely influenced by the high number of pupils with both SEND and PPG, who often enter school with very low starting points. To improve outcomes, a focused approach on tailored interventions and fostering language-rich environments will be essential in supporting these pupils' development.

Intended outcome 2

The intended outcome of enhancing self-confidence and fostering a positive self-image as learners among children eligible for the Pupil Premium Grant has shown promising results at Carlisle Infant School. Recent surveys indicate that pupils, parents, and staff report increased confidence and a more positive attitude towards learning. Learning walks and monitoring of classroom practises further demonstrate the effectiveness of implemented strategies, highlighting the supportive environment cultivated within the school. These successes reflect a collective commitment to empowering disadvantaged pupils, ensuring they not only engage with their education but also develop a strong belief in their abilities as learners.

Intended outcome 3

The intended outcome of ensuring that children eligible for the Pupil Premium Grant (PPG) leave Reception with average levels of attainment in prime areas, as well as Reading, Writing, and Maths, has not been met this year, with only 33% achieving the expected level. This shortfall is significantly influenced by the high number of pupils who have both SEND and PPG status, many of whom enter school with very low starting points. Addressing these challenges will require targeted interventions and support to help these pupils develop the foundational skills necessary for future academic success, ensuring they can thrive in their learning journey.

Intended outcome 4

Parental feedback has been generally positive, indicating an increase in confidence among PPG families. The combination of accessible resources and enhanced parental skills not only supports children's immediate learning needs but also fosters a culture of continuous improvement and collaboration between the school and families. This initiative exemplifies a commitment to ensuring that all pupils, regardless of background, have the opportunity to flourish academically.

Intended outcome

The intended outcome of providing Pupil Premium Grant (PPG) children with access to a variety of enrichment activities and experiences outside of school has been successfully achieved, as all PPG pupils participated in targeted enrichment activities during the Spring and Summer terms. These activities were thoughtfully chosen by the pupils themselves, ensuring high levels of engagement and relevance to their interests. Feedback from pupils, parents, and staff has been overwhelmingly positive, highlighting these experiences as both enriching and impactful in broadening aspirations and future choices. Moving forward, the school is committed to seeking further examples of wider enrichment opportunities led by staff, aiming to continuously enhance the range of experiences available to PPG pupils. This proactive approach not only supports their personal growth but also fosters a culture of aspiration and possibility, ensuring that every pupil has the opportunity to explore new interests and pathways
